

[Jun 26 2014, 7:00 PM] Seecantrill: browser doesn't support html5 ...hmmmm

[Jun 26 2014, 7:06 PM] edinnovator: Hi everyone, sorry for the delay- we're live!

[Jun 26 2014, 7:11 PM] poh: Hi everyone

[Jun 26 2014, 7:11 PM] edinnovator: Have questions? Ask them here and we'll post them.

[Jun 26 2014, 7:15 PM] grammasheri: Oh, it wasn't me :)

[Jun 26 2014, 7:15 PM] Seecantrill: Are we experiencing technical difficulties? That's what my screen says.

[Jun 26 2014, 7:18 PM] edinnovator: The webinar is running, but yes, I'm seeing the same message- standby please!

[Jun 26 2014, 7:18 PM] grammasheri: I see the sign on technical difficulties too.

[Jun 26 2014, 7:19 PM] StaffSandboxOER: me too

[Jun 26 2014, 7:19 PM] grammasheri: Even if I refresh the page, but the chat here seems unaffected

[Jun 26 2014, 7:19 PM] grammasheri: I wonder if it's recording...

[Jun 26 2014, 7:22 PM] poh: apologies for the technical glitch

[Jun 26 2014, 7:22 PM] poh: the hangout hung up on us

[Jun 26 2014, 7:23 PM] poh: we're having to restart a new one

[Jun 26 2014, 7:23 PM] poh: so if you can wait a minute, we'll restart in a sec

[Jun 26 2014, 7:23 PM] poh: again, apologies

[Jun 26 2014, 7:23 PM] poh: in the meantime, we're about to tackle the question of barriers to introducing CC to young people

[Jun 26 2014, 7:23 PM] poh: let us know if you have questions about that and we'll communicate your questions to the panel

[Jun 26 2014, 7:25 PM] grammasheri: My students in grades 6 7 8 can only use CC or public domain images. If they find something they like, they go to Wikimedia Commons or CC"Search" to find a similar one with a CC license. They also know the "drag image to Google Search trick" to search by license.

[Jun 26 2014, 7:26 PM] josiefraser: Ah - not just me then!

[Jun 26 2014, 7:26 PM] StaffSandboxOER: Barrier #1 Assume everything on the Internet is free (and true).

[Jun 26 2014, 7:26 PM] poh: Josie - here's a link to rejoin the hangout: https://plus.google.com/hangouts/_/hoaevent/AP36tYc0lefMMqSBIfXwGed3KSqyUioxIp79vClQoLiPOGvfmWMA4g?authuser=0&eid=105409452620231305994&hl=en

[Jun 26 2014, 7:26 PM] StaffSandboxOER: I show the Google Search trick to search by license

[Jun 26 2014, 7:29 PM] grammasheri: #Barrier #2 Students see all the FB, etc. images so they think all images are usable. They really don't even think there could be a fee or a need to ask permission.

[Jun 26 2014, 7:29 PM] Seecantrill: we are back/live!

[Jun 26 2014, 7:29 PM] edinnovator: yay!

[Jun 26 2014, 7:29 PM] grammasheri: Yeah! Nothing's perfect. Patience.

[Jun 26 2014, 7:29 PM] edinnovator: Thank you all for your patience!

[Jun 26 2014, 7:37 PM] grammasheri: I worked with our school board to add to our policy; students retain copyright; district has copyright if done on school time; teachers own copyright when creating off school time, but need to leave the work for future use at district.

[Jun 26 2014, 7:48 PM] poh: That's cool grammasheri

[Jun 26 2014, 7:53 PM] grammasheri: So if you have a Google Presentation that you are willing to share, except for two of the pictures, then you list that in your presentation?
[Jun 26 2014, 7:58 PM] grammasheri: Thanks!
